RESTREINT UE/EU RESTRICTED

EU revised tariff offer to the U.S. October 2015

Specific conditions for agriculture products

274 tariff lines are liberalised subject to the full reciprocal liberalisation of the tariff lines for the corresponding products in the U.S. offer. The tariff lines to which this condition applies are identified in the offer by "R".

The negotiation on Geographical Indications must result in the extension on the U.S. territory of Article 23 TRIPS protection to other foodstuffs than wine and spirits on the basis of a shortlist of EU names protected as Geographical Indications in the EU which will be directly protected through the TTIP Agreement.

The TTIP negotiations will address specific U.S. agricultural non-tariff barriers, including sanitary and phytosanitary issues, in order to find appropriate solutions to reduce and/or eliminate the potential impact on EU products and operators.

The TTIP negotiations will address wine-specific issues in order to:

- establish reciprocal liberalisation of import duties on wine;
- establish the exclusive use for EU wine producers of the wine names listed in Annex II of the EU-U.S. Wine Agreement.
- find appropriate solutions to U.S. wine specific non-tariff barriers in order to reduce and/or eliminate the potential impact on EU products and operators

Protection of a shortlist of EU spirit names (in addition to the names protected through the EU-U.S. agreement on distilled spirits and spirit drinks).
